As Eskom and Africa's first nuclear power station, Koeberg plays a vital role in ensuring a reliable supply of electricity to the Western Cape, one of the fastest growing regions in the country. The nature reserve offers two trails for walking and mountain bike enthusiasts.

Whether you are an individual or part of a group, our knowledgeable staff will assist you on your journey of discovery. Presentations are customised for each group to ensure that we get our nuclear message across.

Visits are free. Educational institutions and groups are required to book in advance. If you cannot come to us, we will come to you - we are always happy to share our nuclear story.
