Studente word tuiniers

Om tuine vir die kinders in Shalom Children's Ministries in Heidelberg aan te lê, was verlede week o.m. die taak van drie tweede jairstudente in Meganiese Ingenieurswese aan die Universiteit van Pretoria.

Hulle het ook die inwoners onthaal as deel van hul sosiale projek wat in die vakansie uitgevoer moes word. Stephen Sadler, Lendl van der Merwe en Conrad Marnewick het hul sosiale projek begin deur 'n sokkerwedstryd tussen die inwoners te organiseer en daaraan deel te neem. Sadler, seun van 'n Heidelbergse sakevrou en kunstenaar, Liezl Sadler, sê hy en sy maats het gou hul kennis oor die aanleg van tuine op die internet gaan "opswoot" voordat hulle die gedugte taak op Woensdag aangepak het. Die skuiling met sy 52 kinders onder die bestuur van Liliam Mashau en die voorgedyskap van die leraar-egpaar Juanita en Henk van Zyl, hou nou met verwagting dop hoe die boontjies, wortels, beet en pampoen gaan wortel skiet! Sadler sê hy en sy vriende is baie trots met wat hulle op die terrein van sosiale interaksie en diens bereik het. "Ons wil dankie sê aan die universiteit wat ons die geleentheid gebied het."
