No rest for the wicked!

SUN CITY - On Tuesday, 25 March this year, Insp Mkhawari was on duty at the Sun City CSC when a man entered and reported that, while he was collecting wood in the dense bushes near Ledig, he came across the body of a young woman. He accompanied Insp Mkhawari to point out the scene.

A murder docket was opened and assigned to D/Insp Ntsimane of Sun City Detective Service. Forensic and fingerprint experts were called in and photo's were taken at the scene.

On Wednesday, 26 March the body was identified as that of a woman who went missing on Saturday, 22 March 2008. She had not been reported as a missing person to the police.

Shortly after Insp Kube of Sun City CSC reported for night shift duty on 28 March, a man walked into the CSC and identified himself as Phinius Matlou. He claimed to be the one who had killed the woman.

Matlou alleged that he had found the woman at Sun Village Complex on Saturday, 22 March 2008 and that he escorted her to Bakgatlang Section at Ledig. While they were walking along a footpath, he was suddenly overcome with the urge to rape the woman, as he had been proposing to her for a long time, but she refused to have a relationship with him.

He claimed that he had a condom with him and that he had grabbed her by the throat. The woman apparently tried to fight him off, but he managed to overpower her and he hit her in the head until she became dizzy and fell down. He raped her, using the condom that he had carried with him, and then he throttled her until she passed away, fearing the repercussions as she knew him well and would send the police straight to his door. He then dragged her body into the dense bushes and fled the scene.

Matlou further alleged that, when he went to the woman's funeral and saw that her family and friends were crying, he realised that he could not live with himself, knowing he was her murderer, and that was his reason for giving himself up.

Insp Kube informed the detective on standby as well as the forensic and fingerprint experts, who collected exhibits. Matlou took the detectives to the scene of the crime in order to point out exactly where everything had happened. On 2 April 2008, he appeared in court and was remanded in custody. The detective who was investigating the case, D/Insp Ntsimane, went on pension while the case was on trial, and the docket was reassigned to D/Insp Pheto.

On 21 April this year, Matlou pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment for the rape and 20 years imprisonment for the murder. The sentences is to run concurrently.

'Milk' suspects arrested

IPELEGENG - On 4 May, at around 23:30, a nursing sister who was in charge of the night shift at Mamusa Clinic, Ipelegeng, contacted the Ipelegeng SAPS to report a suspect vehicle that was seen at the clinic. Const Etshabeng and members of A Shift started to trace the vehicle, which was eventually spotted near Schweizer-Renecke on the Bloemhof road.

The members stopped the vehicle and searched it. They found 500 tins of NAN Baby Milk Formula, each containing 500 grams of formula. The three occupants of the vehicle, Mohi Uddin (33), Johnny Mofokeng (27) and Kelileng Sibi (35) were arrested and appeared in court on 6 May.
