

How Eskom generates electricity

Base load stations

Base load power stations generate electricity continuously – 24 hours a day

We operate 30 power stations able to generate 44 013MW

Peaking power stations

Peaking power stations such as hydro, pumped storage and gas turbine stations are started up quickly during the peak demand times of the day

Renewable station

100MW Sere wind farm

