CHANGES TO THE ESKOM BOARD

Debt holders are advised that Mr Mpho Makwana, the chairperson of Eskom, has decided to step down as chairperson and non-executive director of Eskom at the annual general meeting tentatively scheduled for 30 October 2023. The reason for the resignation is to pursue other interests.

In addition, Mr Mteto Nyati, currently a non-executive director, will be appointed as chairperson to the board of Eskom with effect from the same date.

The Minister of Public Enterprises, Mr Pravin Gordhan, wishes to thank Mr Makwana for his contribution during the most difficult time for Eskom and wishes him well in his future endeavours.

Minister Gordhan further stated that "our efforts to stabilise Eskom and restructure it into three subsidiaries – generation, transmission and distribution – remain on track. As government we are committed to ensuring that Eskom has the right skills, talent and experience to support our pursuit of a more secure energy future for South Africans".
